The Best Is Yet To Come

Hard times, hand to mouth, down and out, all those

Hard times

But we've seen the seasons turning

As we weathered every storm

And the climate of our loving

Is so tender and so warm

And the best is yet to come

This is only the beginning

And we've only just begun

To realize the best is yet to come

Heartache, more or less so useless, all the

Heartache

But when the flood of sudden tears came down

We smiled and stood our ground

And the laughter we'd been counting on

It finally came around

And the best is yet to come

And it's getting so much better

Than anything I've known

And I know — oh, yes — the best is yet to come

NURSING IS:

LIFE'S PATH

*To grow in love and understanding of oneself and place in life
To find that there is more to life than merely living
To mature in wisdom and truth through times of joy and sadness
To allow one's love to flow generously to many from far and wide.
And to know that in all things and through all times that God is on your side.*

Wanda Floyd

YOUR GOAL

To know what your goal is in life

To be willing to give of yourself Mind, body, and soul, your entire being — 100%

To achieve that which is yours alone

Is to know what your goal is in life

To its fullest extent

Jane Junior's All-Nighter

Fluting

Oct. 5, 1977

Fluting is a ceremony marking six weeks clinical experience for juniors.

Traditionally, this six weeks has been regarded as a time to measure progress made by individual students. If evaluated satisfactorily, each junior was allowed to flute her caps and continue with the nursing program.

The ceremony no longer marks the end of a probationary period. Instead, it has evolved into a night of celebration as the Seniors extend their friendship and a warm welcome to the Juniors.

After an evening of skits, songs, and laughter, the event concludes with fluting of the Junior caps and pinning of a silver bar for the men in the class.

Another Part of Our Lives at UMAB

Just when I think I have learned the way to live, life changes and I am left the same as I began. The more things change the more I am the same. It appears that my life is a constant irony of maturity and regression, but my sense of progress is based on the illusion that things out there are going to remain the same and that, at last, I have gained a little control. But there will never be means to ends, only means. And I am means. I am what I started with, and when it is all over I will be all that is left of me.

THE RN TEAM FACULTY: Kathy Henderson, Judi Mayer, Sally Parelhoff (Class Advisor), JoAnn Kessler, Francine Cohen.

Our faculty had mannerisms and characteristic words that are ingrained forever in our integrative subsystem. They all tried so hard to 'zero-in' on the Nursing Process, Community Nursing and Crisis Intervention. Did they succeed? Only time will tell!

Sally always 'shared' with us while Janet was 'in touch' and 'aware' of everything. While Barbara 'addressed' them, Francine got us through many 'sticky situations' with the aid of Harry Stack Sullivan. Judi, Pat and Norma did such a good job with the role plays, they'll be auditioning for the Morris Mechanic Theatre next year. Donna, our 'boss,' was always 'trying to get it together.' Peggy admitted she couldn't spell; we cut a 'time pie' with Trish, but Kathy 'pieced' it all together in the end. Be sure to keep a close eye on the clock when headed for Jo's classes.

Now that it's over — Thank You, Faculty for guiding us towards June 2 and our BSN. We won't forget this year or you!!

STRINGING

*Spring
1977*

The Nightingale Cap

The University of Maryland nursing cap is among the oldest in the world. It was designed by Florence Nightingale for those nurses who graduated from St. Thomas' Nursing School in England. One of those graduates, Louisa Parsons, opened the University of Maryland School of Nursing and the cap and tradition was carried to America. The original cap was made of one row of point d'esprit lace which was gathered together and fluted. The cap we receive has been modernized, including additional rows of lace and the nurses' initials embossed on the crown. Stringing at the University of Maryland School of Nursing is a traditional ceremony involving the processes of: stringing a long piece of thread through the fluted edges of the cap; drawing the edges together; and fitting the cap to the head of the individual.

Graduation

Dr. Marion I. Murphy, Dean
University of Maryland School of Nursing
January 1967-June 1978

Dr. Marion I. Murphy retired at the end of the academic year as Dean of the University of Maryland School of Nursing, ending an eleven year association. Dr. Murphy began her career in 1931 with a diploma degree from St. Mary's Hospital, Minneapolis, Minnesota. Dean Murphy received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education in 1936 from the University of Minnesota. She served as Associate Professor in Public Health at Minnesota from 1943 to 1947. While working at the University of Michigan as Associate Professor in Public Health Nursing she earned her Master's Degree. Dr. Murphy served as Professor, then Director of Public Health Nursing at Minnesota from 1953 to 1967, where she earned her Doctorate in 1959. Since coming to Maryland as Dean in 1967, Dr. Murphy has promoted many changes involving curricula and new programs.

While at the School of Nursing, Dean Murphy has been active nationally in the fields of health and nursing. She has held numerous posts for the American Public Health Association, the American Nurses' Association, the National League for Nursing, and the American Association of Colleges of Nursing. She has been an advisor on nursing to the U.S. Public Health Service and was a member of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare Committee to Study Extended Roles for Nurses. She continues to serve as a consultant to the Army Nurse Corps.

Locally, she has served on the Mayor's Commission on Aging, as president of the Maryland Hospital Education and Research Foundation, and as a member of the Maryland Council on Higher Education's Committee on Allied Health Professions. Her most recent local assignment was serving as chairman of the Maryland Commission for Nursing.

Among her many honors are the Pearl McIver Public Health Nurse Award from the American Nurses' Association in 1970, and the Distinguished Service Medal from the regents of the University of Minnesota in the same year. Towson State University granted Dr. Murphy an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree in 1972.

Currently, Dr. Murphy has been nominated for the presidency of the American Nurses' Association, where she has held various leadership positions.

Wishing you luck and a success-filled retirement.

Jewish Students' Association

This year a new student group was formed on the UMAB campus, appropriately called "The Jewish Students' Association of UMAB." By mid-February, we have already had two huge successful functions: a Chanukah party held in December and a wine and cheese get reacquainted party held in February. Both activities were attended by over 100 persons. Future events are being planned and with continued support they should be as successful as our past events!

NURSING ANYONE?

The Florence Nightingale Pledge

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly, to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug. I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping, and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my calling. With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

Your Friend the Pancreas
by Alan Gaby

Many people do not realize what a true friend the pancreas is. When your blood contains too much sugar, your pancreas comes to the rescue with insulin. When there is not enough sugar in your blood, that little piece of sweet bread provides you with glucagon. Long after Alka Seltzer ushered in the era of civilized man, that little organ with a head and a tail was plop-plop, fizz-fizzing amylase, lipase, peptidases, and other digestive enzymes into your gut to help you utilize the bolus of food with which men's stomachs had been perennially stuffed. While people have, for ages, been making great demands on the pancreas, this little endocrine entity has stood like a flying buttress against the chapel of pythonic engorgement.

Then came a new insult to our biochemical buddy: the scourge of recent evolution; the pure, refined, white powder resembling heroin so much in its appearance and addictive properties that historians have been puzzled by its legality; the crystal carbohydrate that has contributed so to the decay of our society that the brand name under which it was sold was named after the Domino Theory.

So you're addicted to sucrose; you've got the sugar blues. Your friend with the happy hormones cannot handle your addiction. You down your sugar and this purified powder rushes into your system like a drop of ink would equilibrate in a glass of water. Your blood sugar level is then grossly elevated, and your body in crisis. Your poor, unmutated pancreas panics at the sight of this new event: the rapid rise in blood sugar. It does the only thing it knows how under the circumstances; it POURS insulin into your blood to get rid of this excess sugar. But unfortunately, it pours in too much insulin. Next thing you know your blood sugar is too low, rather than too high. Your brain is not getting enough fuel; you are hungry, nervous, sweating, depressed, and irritable. And you crave the one item that you know will most rapidly bring your blood sugar back to normal and relieve you of your misery: the white powdery stuff. The vicious cycle moves on. Your poor friend the pancreas is overworked and uncared for. It will not be your friend forever.

Congratulations to the FLORENCE NIGHTINGALES OF 1978

Best Wishes, Harold

Your First Job

Nursing at Sinai

It should smooth out the rough edges on your perspective. It should help you fully understand that moment when those undergraduate or nursing school conceptualizations suddenly seem dream like in the face of real need. It should show you that by becoming a nurse you've made the right decision — you've chosen the right life. Your first job is for learning . . . for growing.

Sinai Hospital is the place for your first job and every job after that.

We've provided comprehensive health care for residents of Northwest Baltimore for over a century. Today, as a non-denominational, non-profit, full-service, community hospital, Sinai is a recognized leader in advanced patient care. We offer the most sophisticated equipment and modern surgical procedures, exceptional specialty areas, and a progressive, thoroughly professional Staff.

We invite you to find out more about the attractive salary, benefits, and advantages available for RN's.

MERCY'S FINAL FAREWELL

The senior class of nineteen hundred seventy eight,
Are graduating now and that's great!
The Mercy Junior Faculty are proud and elated for you,
It just doesn't seem possible that you're all through.
You've worked so hard during the year
To achieve the goal which is finally here.
Health teaching projects; assessments;
care plans you've had to prepare
So that you could provide quality care
We're sending out the road to success
Remember you are a University nurse — we're sure you'll do your best!

STUDENT COUNCIL

My dear friends of the class of '78,

In the two years I have been associated with the school of Nursing, in both a full time and part-time capacity, I can honestly say that I have enjoyed your company. Although I won't be graduating with you, I can't help but feel a sense of loyalty and love toward all of you. Unfortunately, it has not been my pleasure to have met every one in the class, therefore my message may mean more to some than to others. Nevertheless I congratulate all of you and wish you much happiness. For those of you who laughed with me, cried with me, and in general "shared" your lives with me these past two years, a special THANK YOU is in order. Never in my entire life have I loved or been loved as much as in these past two years. You are special people and whatever you decide to do after graduation; whether it be in the Health Profession, the field of entertainment, or whether you decide to be a truck driver, domestic engineer or a farmer, my heart will be with you always. Since I could not personally congratulate and thank each one of you, I would like to leave you with a few things to remember. Some you will recognize and some you won't. Some you might forget and others will remain a part of you.

Can you REMEMBER . . . the first day you wore your uniform?

. . . your first Concepts exam?

. . . IPR?

. . . your first Care Plan?

. . . Fluting 1976 and 1977?

. . . your first injection and whom you gave it

. . . Pre and Post clinical conferences

. . . where you are coming from?

. . . all-nighters ċ or ſ coffee?

. . . free chewing gum in lecture?

. . . Nina and the Parsonettes?

. . . Alarm Clocks?

. . . The Pub and Dave as our resident Psychologist?

. . . The Goatropers (Spitz, Dewey, and Red Neck Mama)?

. . . Room 110 Parsons Hall?

. . . The first Gong Show at the Pub?

. . . the A.V. Lab? (Smile — it's over now)

. . . eating on the run?

. . . forgetting to eat?

. . . the "ozone" triplets?

. . . good old number 75?

. . . Nursing and Society Post-class BUZZ*OUTS?

. . . Loving — Caring — Sharing — Laughing and Crying?

. . . your family?

. . . your friends?

. . . God? (He helped!)

. . . Thursday nights at the Pub?

. . . you can't save the world by yourself — you need help?

. . . "what Peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story . . . If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time . . . Be yourself . . . be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be . . . With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy." ("DESIDERATA").

. . . ME? . . . I shall never forget you.

Good Luck, and Love Always,

Henry
